FOREWORD

"There is no place like Nebraska' where hope springs eternal; where strong men labor to a purpose and where climate and soil combine to give us an agricultural Eden." Editorial comment in Nebraska State Journal, July 25, 1932.

This year we have had an abundance of rain. Our crops have surely responded. Our rich, black, prairie soil needs only moisture to produce the best.

Fillmore Gardens is a part of the Wernimont Pure Bred Stock and Seed Farms and is maintained primarily for the pleasure of the owners and not as a livelihood. Wayne, age thirteen, who has shown an unusual interest in flowers and who has been stenographer to his mother for the past year, is now entering the business as junior partner. Much of the success of our flower culture is due to the hard work of Henry Wernimont and Kenneth, the other two members of our family. We are reserving about two more acres of the farm land, to be planted to iris and peonies. We will begin planting about September 1 and continue to October 15. We can make some very attractive prices on our garden surplus. Let us have your order early, please. Nearly a quarter of a century ago, we purchased our first collection of ten named iris and seven varieties of peonies. We have been constantly adding and discarding varieties in an effort to grow only the best. Please note the uniformly high ratings for the peonies. Descriptions and the iris ratings have been omitted on account of expense, but those not too new may be found in our previous catalog.

The high quality of our stock may be noted by the fact that our first show entry for prizes, made at the Fifth Annual Spring Flower Show, at the University Coliseum, Lincoln, Nebraska, resulted in obtaining for us four firsts, two seconds and one third in ribbons and other prizes, also the Bronze Medal of the American Iris Society.

The Lincoln Flower Show was probably one of the largest and most successfully staged of any in the United States. Much credit is due to those in charge. The Sass Bros. of Omaha had a wonderful exhibit of their newest iris, the Graham Iris Gardens of Lincoln and others had fine exhibits. The section devoted to peonies was also large and of good quality, especially the fine collection put on by J. W. Bernstein, which won the Sweepstakes in that section.

We have many items not listed. Let us know your wants, and if we can, will be glad to supply. We have fine seed coming on of "The Burpee" sweet corn and Burbank's "Sorgum Pop" popcorn, as well as certified and other farm seeds.

Visit our gardens. Especially during the spring and early summer. You are welcome.

MABEL BAILOR WERNIMONT.
